MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

1. INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENTS:

In the recent years the India financial sector is demonstrating sustained momentum. reforms in the equity capital markets and strengthening the regulatory environment by SEBI, market determined prices, screen-based national-wide trading, connectivity through VSAT technology, T+2 settlement, scrip less settlement and electronic transfer of securities, rolling settlement and derivatives trading have greatly improved the efficiency of trading and settlement. The industry is also becoming more vibrant, with new categories of products and services being offered to meet the needs of an emerging economy.

2. OUTLOOK- GLOBAL CAPITAL MARKETS:

Stock markets worldwide have grown in size as well as depth over the last one-decade; India has the number one ranking in terms of listed securities on the Exchange followed by the USA.

The size of the capital market is now comparable to other developing countries but there is still a long way to go. It is however significant to note that Indian securities market is getting increasingly integrated with the rest of the world. Indian companies have been permitted to raise resources from abroad through issue of ADRs, GDRs, FCCBs and ECBs.

3. OPPORTUNITIES & THREATS

OPPORTUNITIES:

We continue to remain optimistic about the long-term India story and the opportunities that it will offer across sectors. The financial services sector is expected to grow rapidly in an expanding economic environment. However, in the short-term from time-to-time there will be challenges that will temper the outlook in the interim term.

THREATS:

Global meltdown, Economy meltdown, Terrorist attacks, Sub-prime Crisis in the US affected Indian and worldwide financial markets.

4. RISK MANAGEMENT

The company has taken insurance policies in compliance with requirements of The National Stock Exchange of India Limited like stock broker's indemnity policies that provide converge against incomplete transactions and computer crimes etc.,

5. INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEMS AND THEIR ADEQUACY

The Company has adequate systems of internal control in place. These have been designed to provide reasonable assurance with regard to recording and providing financial and operational information, complying with applicable statutes, safeguarding assets from un-authorized use of losses, executing transactions with proper authorization and ensuring compliance of the company's policies.

AUDITORS REPORT

To
The Members of M/s Boss Securities Limited
Hyderabad.

We have audited the attached Balance Sheet of M/s Boss Securities Limited as at 31st March, 2008 and also the Profit and Loss Account along with notes to accounts for the year ended on that date annexed thereto. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's Management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial results are free of material misstatement. An Audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement preparation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

As required by the Companies (Auditors Report) Order, 2003, issued by the Central Government of India in terms of sub-section (4A) of section 227 of the Companies Act, 1956, we enclose in the Annexure a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the said Order.

Further to our comments in the Annexure referred to above:

The Company has not made any provision in respect of debts aggregating to Rs. 35741950/- which are long outstanding and not yet recovered and the same are included in Loans and Advances. Consequently the loss for the year has been understated by Rs. 35741950/- and the current assets are overstated to the extent.

Subject to the above, we report that:

1. We have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit.
2. In our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the company so far as it appears from our examination of the books.
3. The Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of accounts.

4 In our opinion the Balance sheet and Profit and Loss Account dealt with by this Report have been drawn up in accordance with the accounting standards referred to in Section 211 (3C) of the Companies Act, 1956.

5 On the basis of the written representation from the directors, taken on record by the Board of Directors, none of the Directors is disqualified as on 31st March, 2008 from being appointed as a director under section 274(1)(g) of the Companies Act, 1956.

6. In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanation given to us, the said Balance Sheet and Profit & Loss Account read together with the schedules and other notes there on gives the information required by the Companies Act, 1956 in the manner prescribed and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India :

- A. In the case of the Balance Sheet, of the state of affairs of the company as at 31st March, 2008.
- B. In the case of Profit & Loss Account, of the Loss for the year ended 31st March, 2008.

ANNEXURE TO AUDITOR'S REPORT

1. The Company has maintained reasonable records showing full particulars including quantitative details and situation of its fixed assets. According to the information and explanation given to us, the Management during the year has physically verified most of the fixed assets. In our opinion, the frequency of such physical verification is reasonable having regard to the size of the company and the nature of its assets. No material discrepancies were noticed on such verification as compared to the available records. There was no substantial disposal of fixed assets during the year. However as at the end of the financial year, as at 31st March 08, all the assets have been written off.
2. a) There are no inventories as at the end of the year as well as at the beginning of the year and the question of verification does not arise, and consequently there are no comments on the same.
b) There are no inventories and the question of verification regarding the procedures of physical verification of inventories does not arise, and consequently there are no comments on the same.
3. The company has made interest free advances in the nature of loans aggregating to Rs.35741950. In the absence of any interest and repayment stipulations, we are unable to comment on the same. The same is shown under the head current assets. The other clauses are not applicable to the company.
4. In our opinion and according to the information and explanation given to us, there is a reasonable Internal Control System commensurate with the size of the company and the nature of its business for the purchase of inventory and fixed assets and for the sale of goods. During the course of our audit, no major weakness has been noticed in the internal controls. However the system needs to be further strengthened.
5. In our opinion and according to the information and explanation given to us, there are no transactions that need to be entered into the register maintained under section 301 of the Companies Act, 1956. The sub clause will not be applicable to the company.
6. The company has not accepted any deposits from public covered by Provisions of sec 58 A and 58 AA of the Companies Act, and the Companies (Acceptance of Deposit) Rules, 1975.
7. In our opinion, the company has an In-house internal audit system commensurate with the size and nature of its business. However the Internal Audit System needs to be further enhanced.
8. We are informed that the Central Government has not prescribed maintenance of cost records under section 209(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956.

A handwritten signature in blue ink is written over a circular stamp. The stamp contains some illegible text, possibly a date or a reference number.

9. The Company is regular in depositing undisputed Statutory Dues including Income tax, Sales Tax, Wealth Tax, Custom duty, Excise duty, Cess, Provident fund, ESI and any other statutory dues applicable to it with the appropriate authorities. According to the information and explanations given to us, no undisputed amounts payable in respect of Sales tax, Income tax, Wealth tax, Custom duty, Excise duty and Cess were outstanding at the year end for a period of more than six months from the date they became payable. According to the records of the company, there are no disputed amounts that have not been deposited with appropriate authorities on account of Income tax, Wealth tax, Custom duty, Excise duty, Sales tax, Cess and Service tax.
10. The company has accumulated losses at the end of the financial year and there are no cash losses in the current and also immediately preceding financial year.
11. On the basis of the audit conducted and on the information and explanations given by the management, we are of the opinion that the company has not defaulted in payment of dues to financial institutions and banks. The company does not have any borrowings by way of debentures.
12. The company has not granted any loans and advances based on security by way of pledge of shares, debentures and other securities.
13. In our opinion and according to the information and explanations given to us, the nature of activities of the company does not attract any special statute applicable to chit fund and nidhi/ mutual benefit fund/ societies.
14. Based on our examination of records and information and explanations given to us, the company has not dealt/ traded in shares, securities, debentures and other securities during the year.
